

receive the same for its own benefit. Should any such corporation at any time have deposited with said treasurer more than the amount hereby required, such excess may be refunded.

1892, ch. 109.

85 f. In case any such corporation, now or hereafter doing business in this State, not chartered under the authority of this State, shall refuse or neglect to make the deposit hereinbefore provided, the fact shall be reported by the said treasurer to the Attorney-General, who shall thereupon, without delay, institute such proceedings as may be necessary to enjoin and restrain such corporation from transacting any business in this State, and the Court before which such proceedings shall be begun, shall be authorized to make such order or decree, and to issue such process in the premises to enforce compliance by such corporation with the provisions of this statute, or to restrain the transaction of business by such corporation in this State as it may deem proper.

Ibid.

85 g. The amount of money which any corporation shall have on deposit, or hold in trust, or loan at any time, shall not exceed ten times the amount of its paid-up capital and surplus, and its outstanding loans, shall not, at any time exceed said amount; but any such corporation authorized to receive court deposits, may, at any time, receive on deposit and loan out any money which may be deposited with it by order of any of the courts of this State, notwithstanding such limitation.

Ibid.

85 h. Any willful false swearing, relative to the report and examination hereinbefore provided for, by any person, shall be deemed perjury, and be subject to the prosecutions and punishments for that offense now or hereafter provided for by law.

Ibid.

85 i. Whenever it shall be proven to the satisfaction of said treasurer that any such corporation has surrendered its charter or ceased to do business in this State, and has liquidated all its indebtedness to depositors and creditors, he shall surrender to
